LYING PROVES EXPENSIVE SPORT

THIRTEEN AIRSHIPS WRECKED DURING MEET

B. Moissant Wins Nearly $15,000, But Loses Four Machines

(Times Leased Wire.)
New York, Nov. 1.—J. Armstrong, exel, Pittsburgh millionaire and one of the best known aviators in America, signed in a huff from the Aero Club of America to-day because of alleged partiality shown by its officials to American aviators in the recent meet at Belmont Park.

The particular decision of the Aero Club officials that placed Drexel was given a bitter Claude Grahame-Smith in regard to the flight to the state of Liberty and return.

With Drexel in spirit if not in action, are said to be most of the other aviators who participated in the Belmont meet. The aviators feel kindly toward John B. Moissant, the winner of the state of Liberty race, but they believe it is a second-chance to complete a flight. They assert that while Drexel's popularity is no excuse for the arrangement committee.

According to the original rules, October 27 was fixed as the date for the flight between the hours of 3 and 4 p.m. It was stipulated that the contestants must start one hour previous to the start for the state of Liberty and return within the hour to the state and return was to be awarded the $15,000 prize offered by Mrs. F. Brown.

Because of the safe that made aviation impossible on the second day of the meet, it was announced that the flight would be extended one day, being on October 27. On October 27, the day set for the state of Liberty flight, the wind blew a gale and the race was again postponed, announcement being made that it would be run on the day of the meet and the number of flights were limited.

White protested against holding the race at all, declaring he had engaged his machine in order to make the necessary hours preliminary flight on October 27, but his protest was overruled. On Sunday, October 28, the contest committee ruled that the meet was officially closed at midnight, and White's intention to fly Monday was thwarted.

It is expected that other aviators will follow the action taken by Drexel in resigning.

Thirteen airships were wrecked during the Belmont meet without a single fatality being seriously injured.

Walter Brooks and Alfred Le Blanc, injured during the flying of the Coupe Internationale, were the most seriously hurt.

John B. Moissant lost the most machines, four of the damaged craft belonging to him. He also was the largest winner, his earnings reaching nearly $15,000.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Brandon, Man., Nov. 1.—John Regan was burned to death this morning in a fire which broke out in a freight car in which he was sleeping. He was in charge of 15 horses and all but two of these were consumed. Two other men who were in the car escaped. The blaze is supposed to have been caused by the upsetting of a lantern which had been left burning.

BLAZE AT MONTREAL.

Seating Rink Destroyed, Causing Loss of $50,000.

(Special to the Times.)

Montreal, Nov. 1.—The stadium, a large ice and skating rink, according to the seasons, was destroyed by fire this morning, and so great was the heat from the inflammable structure that some twelve families were driven from their homes near by scanty attire into the chilly air. Missager Gauthier, who resided in the building, had a narrow escape. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

HON. W. S. FIELDING.

Ottawa, Nov. 1.—Hon. W. S. Fielding returned to the capital last night from Montreal greatly reassured as to his health, the only prescription being that he will probably take a couple of weeks' holiday before settling down to the heavy work of the session.

SCHOOL LANDS SOLD.

Edmonton, Alta., Nov. 1.—Over a quarter of a million dollars' worth of school lands were disposed of at Verillion at a sale there.

MAN HUNG HANGING.

Nelson, Nov. 1.—A neighbor passing a house in Fernie saw through the window a man hanging by a cord and handkerchief from one of the rafters. The police and a doctor were quickly on the spot and the man was cut down, but life was extinct and efforts at resuscitation failed.

The dead man is George Harold Chambers, a miner, aged 25 years, who arrived from England three months ago, where he left his wife and three children. He was living with his father-in-law in Fernie. He had been dependent at not securing steady work and at his inability to bring his family from England.

GETS TWENTY YEARS.

Fernie, Nov. 1.—An Italian, Francis Chiello, was Saturday sentenced to 20 years' imprisonment by Mr. Justice Clement for the killing of a fellow-countryman at Jaffray last July.

LOWERS RECORD FOR GOLD SEAL RACE

Cameron L. Smith Wins Annual Event at Vancouver—C. Brown Third

(Times Leased Wire.)

Vancouver, Nov. 1.—Cameron L. Smith, a young rancher from Bowen Island, self-trained and unattached to any club, won the fourth annual Gold Seal road race yesterday in the record time of 1:00.03. With the $35 first prize also won a $25 gold medal emblematic of the long distance championship of British Columbia.

Smith's victory was a surprise to many, although his showing last New Year's day in this race on the occasion of his first public appearance in a race, stamped him as a wonderful runner. He was second in the last race, but yesterday romped home an easy winner, beating such well known runners as Will R. Chandler, the former long-distance champion of the coast, and Chas. Brown, the five-mile champion of British Columbia, and also lowering the existing record for the 11.25 mile officially measured course by one minute and 18 seconds. Chas. Brown, of the Victoria Western Athletic Club, and J. H. Roul, a western man, put up the only really close finish of the race, coming in only a few feet apart. Roul's superior sprinting powers enabled him to secure second place after he and Brown had run neck and neck for the last miles of the distance.

MILLIONAIRE IS CHARGED WITH MURDER

His Automobile Struck Buggy, Killing One of the Occupants

(Times Leased Wire.)

New York, Nov. 1.—Edward Rosenheimer, millionaire, is on trial to-day for murder. His automobile struck a buggy, demolishing it. Grace Hough was killed and two other persons injured. The accident occurred on Aug. 18th.

Rosenheimer is the second automobile driver in history to be tried for murder for killing persons with automobiles. Edward Saragh, whose taxi-cab killed a child, is now serving a sentence in Sing Sing.

The jury in the Rosenheimer case consists of prominent merchants, though none of them owns an automobile.

In opening the case for the state, Assistant District Attorney Maynard asserted that Rosenheimer was driving his machine at a mile a minute speed when he came up behind the buggy in which Grace Hough was riding. The automobile crashed into the vehicle and threw the occupants to the ground. The driver of the automobile, Maynard said, did not offer to help his victim, but increased his speed and fled from the scene. He was arrested soon afterward.

George Yeandle, an architect, a juror in the case, was arrested to-day charged with having offered to hang the jury for $500.

A man named Timondoff, a builder, was also arrested. It is alleged that Timondoff represented Yeandle, made an offer to Rosenheimer's attorney, James W. Osborne, to prevent a verdict.

In default of $12,000 bail, Yeandle and Timondoff were remanded to the Tombs for examination on Thursday.

Yeandle was excused shortly before the opening of the case and another juror selected. The trial was not halted by his arrest but as soon as his substitute was put in the box the opening statement was begun by the state.

WOULD EXTEND VIEW STREET

MAYOR MORLEY TO PRESENT A RESOLUTION

Plans to Have Project Carried Out as Work of Local Improvement

At this evening's meeting of the city council Mayor Morley will present a resolution providing for the extension of View street through from Broad to Government. The motion aims at having the project accomplished as a work of local improvement, the cost of the same to be borne by the owners of property affected and by the city, and provides also that no building permit shall be issued by the inspector until the by-law necessary under the circumstances has been dealt with by the council. There are four property owners whose consent it will be necessary to obtain—D. Spencer, Ltd., Richard Musgrave, Henry Young & Co., and the Union Bank of Canada.

The mayor's motion is in line with an agitation which was set afoot as soon as the late fire suggested that such an improvement would be possible. In the event of View street being extended as proposed, and Spencer's rebuilding on the ruins of their former arcade, this firm would have a frontage on three streets. Troncaj Avenue would in all likelihood be closed. This thoroughfare, as is well known, is private property and may be closed at any time by the owners.

Another important matter which will engage attention at this evening's meeting is a special report from the city engineer, Angus Smith, on the present condition of the reservoir system at Goldstream of the Esquimalt Waterworks Company. Mr. Smith visited the lakes on Thursday last and made a close inspection with the view of determining the truth or otherwise of the statement of the company that the reservoirs were so constructed as to be able to store water at the end of the dry season ample to supply the needs of a city the size of Victoria. It is understood that the report of the engineer will be entirely favorable to the contentions of the company in this particular.

The by-law to authorize the purchase of the holdings of the company will be submitted to the ratepayers at a very early date, though in view of the near approach of the municipal elections it may be considered desirable to postpone this event until the people are asked to elect a new mayor and aldermen.

LEAPS INTO SEA FROM NORTHERN LINER

Young Californian Commits Suicide While on Way to Seattle

(Times Leased Wire.)

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 1.—"Good-bye boys," shouted John Ammer, a young Californian, as he jumped over the side of the steamer Northwestern as it was passing through the Behring Sea. News of the suicide was brought to Seattle by officers of the ship which has just arrived in port.

Little attention had been paid to the man as he carefully placed a can-

WILL BE BIG BUILDING BOOM

SO DECLARES A LEADING ARCHITECT

Five Large Blocks 'Contemplated'—Will Rush Work on Dominion Trust Building

That Victoria is just about to witness the greatest building boom in her history, that the structures will be of a type characteristic of cities of metropolitan proportion, and the expenditure involved in several instances run into hundreds of thousands of dollars, was the substance of a statement made to the Times this morning by one of the leading architects of the city. "I myself know of five huge buildings which are about to be erected," said the Times informant. "I am not at liberty at present to disclose the details of the various projects, but of this you may be assured, they are about to witness the greatest building boom in the history of Victoria."

From another source it was learned that work is to start almost immediately on the erection of the big sky-scraper which is to be put up by the Dominion Trust company on the corner of Government and Wharf streets, at the north end of the Causeway and just opposite the post office. This building, which is to be of pressed brick and eight stories in height, will constitute one of the most modern office buildings in Western Canada. Tenders are to be asked for at once, and the building pushed to completion with all possible speed.

FIRE WARDENS TO ASK FOR $50,000

At a Special Meeting Held Yesterday Decided to Improve Equipment of Brigade

At a special meeting of the board of fire wardens of the city council, held yesterday afternoon, the important decision was reached to ask the council to authorize the expenditure of a large sum to place the fire department on an even more efficient basis. The lesson taught by the recent fire was held to prove that Victoria cannot afford to be dilatory in the matter of getting everything in the matter of improved equipment which may, in the opinion of Chief Davis, be required.

It is understood that the council will be asked to authorize an expenditure of no less a sum than $50,000, to be used for the purchase of needed new equipment of land and the erection of sub-stations in Oaklands and Fairfield districts. The need of better facilities for fighting fire in outlying districts has already been debated by the council and every man is agreed as to the wisdom of making provision for this at once.

The new equipment for the brigade will, it is understood, be one or more motor engines. It is known that Chief Davis has for a long time been of the opinion that the local department is handicapped in not possessing more apparatus of this type, the horse-drawn vehicles being recognized by experts as being more or less obsolete. It is believed that a majority of the members of the council will be agreeable to sanctioning the expenditure and that at an early date a by-law asking for the necessary fund will be placed before the ratepayers.

CITY HALL'S "BUSY DAY"

A GREAT RUSH OF LATE TAXPAYERS

Building Permits for October Make Record—Last Call to Voters

The city hall might very appropriately be displaying to-day a banner bearing the words: "This is My Busy Day," for there is a scene of great activity in all departments. Long before nine o'clock this morning—the opening hour—the main entrance of the hall was thronged with waiting ratepayers anxious to pay their taxes on this the last day on which the rebate of one-sixth is allowed, and when the doors of the treasury opened Assistant Treasurer Smith and his staff had a busy time.

Others of the crowd in waiting upstairs were householders who desired to get their names recorded on the voters' list so that they may be able to exercise their franchise at the approaching municipal elections.

Not until closing hour this afternoon will Mr. Smith and his staff be able to compute accurately the amount which has been collected this year in taxes, but it is certain that it will break all records and constitute a new mark in collections in one season for the upkeep of the corporate needs of the city of Victoria. It is believed also that there will be fewer delinquents this year than ever before. A feature of the payments is the fact that all ratepayers seem to be in a most optimistic and cheerful mood, the attendants at the treasury having had to listen to but few "kicks" as compared with the experience of former years.

Through the courtesy of Wm. W. Northing, building inspector and returning officer, the Times obtained this morning the latest information respecting the building permits issued for the month of October and the registration of voters who qualify as householders or license-holders.

Compared with October of last year there has been a fine showing in the number of permits issued. Thus, while last year there were 37 permits issued, totaling in value $104,849, in the month just closed there were 56 permits, the total value of all the permits issued for 1909 was $1,962,000, and this year to date the permits issued total in value $1,548,135. There is every assurance, therefore, that the two million mark will be passed this year, supporting this belief being the fact that building projects of great magnitude are now in contemplation, and it would not, indeed, be surprising if the permits issued in 1910 totalled over two and a half millions.

This is the last day on which those who wish to get on the voters' list on a qualification other than as property-owners may register, and as usual the late ones are keeping Mr. Northcott and his assistants busy. To expedite the process of registration, Mr. Northcott has this year an official stationed in his office ready to receive the road tax, and in many instances those who seek to make their declarations are asked to hand over the necessary $2 before doing so. The fact that they may make payment without leaving the office has proved helpful in the work of registration.

This morning the registration for this year amounted to 1,257, but this number will be largely increased before closing time to-night. The total number of registrations last year was 1,450.

NEW PACKING PLANTS.

United States Companies Will Spend $15,000,000 in Western Canada.

Winnipeg, Nov. 1.—Plans are projected for the establishment of large meat packing plants in Western Canada, the sum to be expended being fifteen million dollars.

Representatives of large United States meat packing companies recently investigated conditions in the west, and the result of their report was a decision to launch the enterprise as soon as details could be arranged. Influential Manitobans will lend assistance to the scheme.

It is no secret that American meat packing houses have for long cast envious eyes on this country and proposed that at some not far distant date they would endeavor to increase the capacity and number of their branches in Western Canada.

FIRES AT VANCOUVER.

Vancouver, Nov. 1.—Foreman Major, of the Vancouver Gas Company, was seriously burned about the face and arms in a blaze of mysterious origin at the company's plant late Saturday night. He will recover. The plant was not badly damaged, precautions being taken in time to prevent the spread of the flames.

At noon Sunday the Cottrell storage warehouse was almost completely destroyed, at a loss of $100,000. The five-story warehouse contained varied merchandise, fruit and produce, partly insured by individual owners.

COMPLAINT MADE OF THE DUSTY STREETS

Mr. P. C. Larkin Writes to City Hall Asking that Pavements be Properly Flushed

That unflushed streets are partially responsible for the prevalence of typhoid in Toronto is the theory advanced by Mr. P. C. Larkin, who urges that the street flushing should not be discontinued until the water freezes. He says the dust is unbearable. Street Commissioner Harris told the controllers to-day that it was impracticable to flush the ASPHALT pavements at this time of year, because the water did not evaporate, owing to the low temperature, and therefore a grease was formed which made vehicular traffic very dangerous.

From Toronto Daily Star, Oct. 21st, 1910.

Bitulithic streets may be flushed with water at any time and will always remain Non-slippery.

AVIATORS' CIRCLE

STATUE OF LIBERTY. Three Birdmen Travel the Air at Express Speed

New York, Nov. 1.—Three men from Belmont Park, L.I., yesterday afternoon, circled the Statue of Liberty in 35.2 minutes, through the upper air with up-and-aughted, chilled.

John B. Moissant, flying from the Statue, estimated thirty-nine miles in 31.38.1. Grahame-White, second in 35.2 minutes. De Lesseps, of France, third in 41.56.25.

Moissant used a fifty-horse power Blériot purchased from the French government for $10,000. He had piloted his own monoplane at start until 4.06 p.m., at which time he was replaced by De Lesseps and Grahame-White.

De Lesseps started at 4.06 p.m., at which time he was replaced by Grahame-White. The flight was a success.

Hardly had the bomb exploded when the flight of Liberty flight ended when up from the ground De Lesseps in his Blériot. Grahame-White, a minute was in the air. The flight of fifty-horse power Blériot.

Once past the starting post, Grahame-White was off on his own, figuratively speaking, and De Lesseps.

Grahame-White's machine was to be the faster of the two, the grand stand at an elevation of 1,000 feet, both aviators about the railroad tracks where the town of Jamaica.

On over Jamaica, still following the railroad as a guide, De Lesseps held the lead. Grahame-White held the lead. The aviators kept expressing speed despite the fact that Grahame-White was still in the lead. De Lesseps, but the French first out across New York.

around the statue about 1,000 feet above the big black balloon showed him the course. The aviators showed the course. The aviators showed the course. The aviators showed the course.

Then Grahame-White sent his Blériot around above the Statue of Liberty, and started the same course he had taken. De Lesseps still had a start with the wind at his back. White put on full speed on cutting down his rival.

Midway over Brooklyn there were on even terms, each a minute of between 2,000 and 3,000 feet. De Lesseps was reaching the outskirts of Jamaica-White forged ahead in earnest for Belmont.

Arriving at the aviation field, Grahame-White started his descent. He was about 2,000 feet when in a graceful sweep over the great trees with the machine pointed downward at an angle of 40 degrees. As White had done, De Lesseps down from a level of 3,000.

Moissant was tuning up his Blériot preparatory to start. At first its motors dived, but finally they became true, and he was off over the ground. He was having a hard time showing it, for he kept ahead with never a let-up in speed.

Reaching the East river, he kept across to the New York side, and passed almost above the Statue of Liberty. He then dashed out across the ground the statue.

Above the massive figure he stopped momentarily, then he turned to the return to the Aerodrome. The two rivals who had pressed hard the wind at his back across Brooklyn at a snail's pace.

Once he deviated from the course and followed the elevated structure, but finding him strong he turned again to the tracks of the Long Island Railroad. He followed them back to Belmont.

AVIATORS CIRCLE STATUE OF LIBERTY

Three Birdmen Travel Through the Air at Express Speed

New York, Nov. 1.—Three aviators flew from Belmont Park, L. I., on Saturday afternoon, circled the statue of Liberty in aeroplanes, swept back through the upper air without a mishap and alighted, chilled, but exultant.

John B. Moissant, flying for America, covered the estimated thirty-six mile course in 34:34; Grahame-White, of England, was second in 35:21.30, and Count De Lesseps, of France, was third in 41:55.25.

Moissant used a fifty-horse power Blériot purchased from the Frenchman to-day for $10,000. He had previously smashed his own monoplane. He did not start until 4:05 p.m., after both De Lesseps and Grahame-White had finished. De Lesseps started at 3:08 p.m., and Grahame-White less than a minute later. None, however, wins the $10,000 prize for the flight offered by the Frenchman.

Hardly had the bomb announcing the statue of Liberty flight exploded in the minds of the spectators when the Frenchman, his fifty-horse power Blériot, Grahame-White in his less than a minute was in the air in a preliminary skirmish.

On over-Jamaica, still following the railroad as a guide, De Lesseps and Grahame-White took their course into Brooklyn. The aviators kept up their express speed despite the biting cold. Grahame-White was still gaining on De Lesseps, but the Frenchman was first out across New York bay and around the statue about 1,000 feet above the big black balloon that had shrouded him the course. The crowds along the Brooklyn water front on Governor's Island and along the Battery shouted and waved hands and hats.

Then Grahame-White sent the nose of his Blériot around above the head of the statue and started back along the same course he had travelled. De Lesseps still had a slight lead, but with the wind at his back, Grahame-White put on full speed and began cutting down his rival's advantage.

Midway over Brooklyn the aviators were on even terms, each at an altitude of between 2,000 and 3,000 feet, but reaching the outskirts of the city Grahame-White forged ahead and set sail in earnest for Belmont park. Arriving at the aviation field, the Englishman started his descent from a height of about 2,000 feet. He came down in a graceful sweep over the tops of the great trees with the nose of his machine pointed downward at an angle of 40 degrees. As Grahame-White had done, De Lesseps came down from a level of 3,000 feet.

Moissant was tuning up his newly bought Blériot preparatory to making a start. At first its motors did not ring true, but finally they became attuned and he was off over the grand stand.

It Moissant was having trouble he did not show it, for he kept winning horse-power in speed. Reaching the East river Moissant swept across to the New York shore and passed almost above the Battery. Then describing a pretty half-circle, he dashed out across the bay and around the statue.

Above the massive figure he seemed to stop momentarily, then shot ahead for the return to the Aerodrome. Like his two rivals who had preceded him, Moissant had the wind at his back and ped across Brooklyn at a mile a minute clip.

Once he deviated from his course he followed the elevated railroad structure, but finding himself going wrong he turned again toward the racks of the Long Island railroad and allowed them back to Belmont park.

Paris, Nov. 1.—Amidst an impressive bustle, which contrasted strangely with Saturday's unprecedented passion and tumult in the chamber of deputies, premier Briand Sunday, in cool, incisive phrase and accomplished oratory, rebuffed the Socialists for their violence.

The premier assured the chamber that he was no dictator, but a man of order, and at the end of the session his frank appeal for Republican support resulted in a vote of confidence, 329 to 133.

Since the days of the Boulangers and Dreyfus affairs, no such interest has been displayed in a session of the French parliament. Vast crowds besieged the doors at an early hour, and unable to secure entry, assembled in the square, the streets and on the Pont de la Concorde and waited for hours in the rain to learn the outcome.

Carried away by his passion on Saturday, the premier, defending the attitude of the government in suppressing the railway strike, exclaimed: "Had the actual laws of the country not been sufficient, I would not have hesitated to resort to illegal measures for the purpose of preserving the fatherland."

Following M. Renaud, who justified the premier's words by the axiom that a great national crisis would justify the neglect of legal scruples, M. Briand mounted the tribune. He declared his remarks of Saturday had been entirely misunderstood, because the Socialistic disorder had not permitted him to complete his statements. What he had tried to say was that in grave hours of national peril exceptional measures were justified.

"Nevertheless, the government was proud that it had kept within the limits of legality. It had been many years since the government endured such troublous hours, but the nation had emerged from threatened revolt cleaner, grander, better."

Then, with a dramatic gesture, he flung out his hands, crying: "Look at these hands—not a drop of blood."

An outburst of cheers greeted the premier as he called upon all good Frenchmen to rally to the flag of peace and support the government's efforts to maintain law and order.

A resolution introduced by the Socialists impeaching M. Briand for his "dictatorial crushing down of wage earners" was rejected by an overwhelming majority, after which the chamber voted confidence in the government effort to safeguard the interests of the working classes and preserve the vital interests of the nation.

A scrutiny of the vote shows that 100 radicals, who ordinarily support the government, joined with the Socialists.

GERMANY HASTENS BUILDING OF WARSHIPS

Two Cruisers Will Be Built Annually for Four or Five Years

London, Nov. 1.—Admiral von Koenig, speaking on the expansion of the German navy, has given utterance to certain statements which the Berliner Nachrichten interpret as foreshadowing an amendment to the navy law setting forth the rate of growth of the German navy for the next four or five years.

Two cruisers, says the Journal, will be built annually, instead of one, as hitherto. The maximum number of ships will be unaltered, but the navy programme will be completed three years earlier than arranged. Germany will thus annually lay down three capital ships instead of two from 1912 to 1914 inclusive.

This unexpected departure on the part of Germany is certain to be the subject of discussion in the House of Commons when parliament meets, for the present rate of increase in the British navy is based on the original programme as set forth by the German navy league.

TORY CHANGES AND RECIPROCITY.

The Tory press of the whole Dominion is trying to discourage the government of Canada from negotiating a reciprocity treaty with the United States. As a matter of fact the opponents of reciprocity represent an element of the community which benefits by the erection of high tariff walls, and if the people would submit to it they would have the tariff still higher. At one time the restrictionists advocated this, but of recent years they have become wise to the spirit of the people and are contenting themselves with opposing any reduction in the duties on imported goods. The same crowd opposed the British preference, but now they have changed right around and are supporting it since they find it has come to stay, and are using the old cry of disloyalty whenever anyone suggests better trade relations with our neighbors to the south. The changes of front are so obviously in line with certain personal interests that the mass of the people of Canada refuse to take any stock in the arguments advanced, and treat the whole opposition with an amused contempt.

Discussing the matter of reciprocity, the New York Herald, a paper which more than any other keeps in close touch with the attitude of the government of the United States, says in a recent issue:

"With past failures of reciprocity the Taft administration has nothing to do. Therefore it is scarcely fair for opposition newspapers of Canada, unless they deliberately seek to misrepresent their friend the United States, to constantly allude to hostility of Senators who have since seen the errors of their ways, as reflective of sinister purposes to Washington now. 'Mr. Taft does not do business that way. When he says a thing he always means it. He will stop clean across the line in meeting Sir Wilfrid Laurier, whose cordial words at Montreal recently on this subject evoked exactly similar sentiments on this side of the frontier.'"

"No reciprocity is worth while that is not lasting. No reciprocity can be lasting that does not give advantage for advantage. That we understand to be the spirit in which the American officials will approach the question."

BRITISH TELEPHONES.

The British Post Office authorities have notified the National Telephone Company of London, England, that on the expiration of its license at the end of the year 1911 they will proceed to acquire their telephone property and undertaking at an arbitration value. This is said to be the most gigantic industrial undertaking ever attempted in that country. A good many of the Liberal newspapers are showing a sort of passive opposition to the scheme, arguing that government owned and operated projects are never as efficient or economically operated, as private enterprises. Some of them advocate the formation of a telephone commission, somewhat similar to the Canadian Railway Commission, which shall look after the interests of the public and see that they get an efficient service, but leaving the enterprise as a private one. The difficulty seems to be that the post office already owns part of the telephone system, and that a divided ownership is never a good thing.

In England at the present time the number of telephones in use is only 6.4 to the thousand of population, whereas in the United States the number is 64 to the thousand, just ten times the number of the former.

The Post Office department, while making a large annual income from the letter department, loses annually a considerable sum on the telegraph department, and so far the telephones have not paid any revenue. In the telegraph department, however, the country has been given cheap rates and a splendid service, which, after all, is more important than to produce a revenue. The loss has not been very large. If the telephone service were cheapened and a flat rate given, as in this country, it too would become popular.

Poets are often spoken of with a certain amount of contempt by business people, and many men openly boast that they never read a line of poetry. While this is true it is also sometimes true that only a poet can arouse the imagination of a nation and stimulate it to action. Kipling takes keen delight in so rousing the British people, and one of his poems, published in the London Times or some other widely read journal, always attracts a great deal of attention. As an example of crystallizing the thought of the empire by a few lines of poetry we quote the following verses by William Watson, taken from a recent issue of the London Times: Imperial Mother, from whose breasts we drank as babes the milk whereby we question ev'n thine own behoof, And judge thee with no flinching eye—

Oh slow to hear when thou dost call:
Oh vex with a divided will.
When once a rival seeks thy fall,
We are thy sons and daughters still.
The love that hails, the faith that veers
Are then deep sunk as in the Sea:
The Sea where thou must brook no peers,
And halve with none thy sovereignty.

The electoral campaign at present being conducted in one of the Quebec constituencies, that of Athabasca and Drummond, is of particular interest. The candidates both profess to be Liberals, Mr. Perrault being a supporter of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Gilbert a disciple of Henri Bourassa. Gilbert is opposed to the naval policy of the government, and it is on this alone that the fight is being waged. Much is made, however, of the fact that Gilbert is a farmer, whereas Perrault is a lawyer. The result will be watched with great interest, as it will be some indication of the French-Canadian view of the naval policy, and the strength of the Bourassa movement in Quebec province.

Professor Matthews of McMaster University has been exonerated of the charges of heresy which had been made against him. The Baptist convention is to be congratulated upon coming to so sensible a conclusion. Educated men are to-day refusing to think along the same little groove that has sufficed for centuries. If the churches are to grow and expand with the growth and expansion of the country they will have to adopt the breadth of mind of their founder.

The "Swiss Society of Public Utility for Women" is trying to have inaugurated a system of medical examination for all the young women of the country whether married or unmarried. They claim it is just as necessary that this shall be done as it is that soldiers who enter the army should be medically examined. Raising a family is more important than fighting, they say, so they call upon the women of the country to undergo the examination for the sake of themselves, their husbands, their children and their country. This seems reasonable.

Our attention has been drawn to the fact that the city of Ladysmith was not marked on the railway map which we published a few days ago showing the proposed route of the Canadian Northern railway. It is needless for us to say that no slight was intended to so progressive a community as that of Ladysmith. It was simply an oversight on the part of the artist who prepared the map.

The Vancouver News-Advertiser says: "Victoria is a rich, enterprising and progressive city, and no doubt the blocks that are destroyed will be replaced with larger and finer buildings, and in a short time the city will show little trace of the disaster." We are much obliged to the Advertiser for expressing its good opinion of this city. Victoria is just what it says, and there is no doubt about the finer buildings.

General Manager Chamberlain of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway says the cost of construction of the road will be well within the estimates. That should upset a few of the wild theories of some Tories who have taken up the role of prophets.

In the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the country which

Wednesday Morning Announcement

SINCE the disastrous fire Wednesday night, we have been very busy getting together a stock of goods which we will have ready for our customers Wednesday Morning. Hundreds of cases arrived on the Charmer and Princess Charlotte yesterday, and on Wednesday morning at 8.30 we will be doing business again as if nothing had happened. We will have on special sale Wednesday morning a large shipment of Linens purchased at half price, also a shipment of Dress Goods that had not been passed through the Customs. We have been able to select from our Vancouver Store an assortment of General Dry Goods and Millinery, which will give us, while not as large a stock as we had before, almost as complete a stock.

We are doing everything in our power to have ready for our Customers just as good a selection of merchandise as it is possible to see in any store in the West.

Hundreds of telegrams have been received from Eastern firms giving us particulars of many stocks which they are very willing to sacrifice at this season of the year for very little money. And by judicious use of spot cash we will be able to place before our customers such values as we could never have done if we had not this opportunity when manufacturers are so anxious to dispose of them.

We wish to thank our many friends for the expressions of good will and sympathy and we can assure our customers that it won't be very long till we are able to look after their wants better than ever before.

is said to have been ruined by the disastrous policy of free trade, the imports for September of this year increased $10,000,000 over those of September of last year, and the exports increased by $20,000,000. This in conjunction with the fact that the people get cheap food and cheap manufactured goods, can hardly be quoted as an argument against free trade. In exports there was a slight falling off in new ships. The increases were chiefly in woollen and cotton manufactures, iron and steel, electrical goods, wearing apparel, and chemicals. The increase in imports was mostly in raw materials.

GERHARD HEINTZMAN

Canada's Premier Piano

It is tone that makes or unmakes a piano—it is tone that has won fame for the GERHARD HEINTZMAN

The matchless tone of the Gerhard Heintzman is the result of all that has been done in two successive generations of unflinching fidelity to a high ideal.

It is the unequalled creative genius and mechanical skill that has made the Gerhard Heintzman the standard of piano comparison.

The tone of the Gerhard Heintzman is not that of a day—but of a life time; and it is this feature of maintained musical value—and therefore of maintained commercial value—that makes the Gerhard Heintzman worth all that is asked for it.

WANT ASPHALT PAVEMENT.

Property Owners on Lower Vancouver Street Dissatisfied With Conditions.

A special committee of the city council, consisting of Ald. Langley and Sargison, is to meet the property owners on Vancouver street, between Humboldt and Beacon-Hill park, and discuss ways and means whereby the wishes of the latter in respect to the securing of an asphalt pavement, in lieu of the macadam roadway which was laid down some time ago under a local improvement by-law, may be met.

It appears that that section of Vancouver street was never properly finished with macadam, the work being faulty in many particulars, and it is for the purpose of arranging that the conference with the owners has been called. In the petition from the owners asking for an improved roadway no particular type of asphalt pavement is specified. The owners claim that along the sides of this stretch of the street the broken rock has never been covered, and is constantly being kicked into the gutter by passing teams.

The score in the hockey match played Saturday morning at the North Ward park between the girls of the South Park and Geo. Jay schools, resulted in a draw, neither team being able to drive the ball into the net. The girls of the latter school had a slight advantage and tried many times to find the opponents' goal. From present indications the girls' hockey league is going to prove most interesting.

C. Adamson, a young Englishman, who is at present a resident of Durham, Enn, and who has a capital of $5,000, is desirous of settling on Vancouver Island, and has written to the Development League for information. He states in his letter that he would like to purchase a farm between 20 and 50 acres partly cleared. It would be his intention to plant from five to ten acres in apples and conduct mixed farming.

Miss O'Rourke, teacher of the Sooko public school, assisted by the trustees, gave an enjoyable concert, the following assisting on the programme: Master Oliver Hegler, Miss S. Sanderson, Miss Emmerson, Bertie Muford, Miss Daisy Ross, Miss A. Milne, Miss Bertha Muir, Miss Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain, Mrs. Stewart, Mr. Colperds, Mary McDevitt, Jessie Phillips, Arthur Stewart, Miss C. Stewart was accompanist.

The city engineer, Angus Smith, submitted a lengthy report on the condition of the civic creosoting plant at Friday evening's meeting of the streets, sewers and bridges committee of the city council, accompanied by a tabular statement showing the cost of treating wood blocks in Victoria, compared with other cities in the northwest. The report will be considered at the next meeting, a copy of the same in the interim being placed in the hands of each member of the board.

The streets committee of the council on Friday evening adopted a report by the chairman, Ald. Bannerman, and the city engineer, for the improvement of the water lot at the foot of Queen's avenue. The cost of the work will be $7,000. A wharf will be constructed 250 feet long and extending out into the sea fifty feet. There will be berthing accommodation forty-two feet in width on either side, for the accommodation of small craft. As soon as the proper boundaries have been ascertained the work will be taken in hand.

The following is the programme to be rendered at the First Baptist church, corner of Yates and Quadra streets this evening, the occasion of the second anniversary of the organization of the young ladies' Philathea society: Solo, R. Morrison; duet, "Life's Dream is O'er," the Misses Lawley; solo, "There is a Land," J. D. McLean; sharp selection, "The Blackbird," Miss G. B. Babbington; solo, Miss Cocker; recitation, Conie, Mrs. Hawthorth; solo, "Thara," J. M. Thomas, with harp and piano accompaniment; solo, Miss Sherritt; harp selection, "Aeolian Chords," Miss G. B. Babbington; solo, Miss K. Palmer; solo, Mrs. Q. J. Burnett; solo, "The Deathless Army," Mr. Galt.

FIFTH REGIMENT RIFLE RECORD

WINNERS OF MEDALS, TROPHIES AND SPOONS

Association Has Had Very Successful Year—Thanksgiving Day at Ranges

The Fifth Regiment Rifle Association closed the season's shooting yesterday, when the usual Thanksgiving Day shoot was held at Clover Point. The entries were not so numerous as on previous occasions but the probability of encountering wet weather no doubt kept a number from attending. Considering the weather the scoring was of a very high order, Corp. Birch for the third time this season reaching the century. It was necessary to shoot off a tie to decide the winner of the B. C. R. A. bronze medal. Those who tied were Gnr. Macdougall, Gnr. de Carteret, Staff-Sgt. Richardson and Sgt. Smith, who each had scores of 93. Gnr. Macdougall was absent and the result was: Staff-Sgt. Richardson, 24; Sgt. Smith, 22; Gnr. de Carteret, 12. There should have been a shoot-off between Sgt. Carr and Gnr. Anderson for the B. C. R. A. silver medal, but somehow this was overlooked and it may be left to them to settle the matter in some other amicable manner.

During the season spoons have been shot for at each weekly practice. There has also been a championship aggregate in each class which carries with it a gold medal and best-shot badge. Corp. Birch, as winner of the aggregate in the first class, is to be congratulated on the excellent scores he has put on. The aggregate consists of one score at the long ranges and six at the short ranges. Corp. Birch's aggregate for the seven is 672, which includes an 82 at the long ranges, his average at the short ranges being 93.3. Had the weather been more suitable for long-range firing he would have bettered his 82. Staff-Sgt. Richardson wins second place in the aggregate with a score of 661, and is closely followed in third place by Gnr. Anderson with 660. The winner of the silver medal in the second class aggregate is Co. Q-M-Sgt. Hatcher, with a score of 627, and second place is taken by Gnr. G. A. Heinekey with 568. In the third class aggregate first place goes to Gnr. de Carteret, whose score was 628, one point higher than that of the winner in the second class. Gnr. Harness secures second place in this class with 562.

The winners of spoons are: First class, Corp. Birch, 5; Sgt. Carr, 3; Staff-Sgt. Richardson, 3; Sgt. Major Macdougall, 2; C-S-M. Caven, 2; Co. Q-M-Sgt. Hatcher, 2; Sgt. Parker, 2; Sgt. Smith, 2; Sgt. A. Richardson, 2; Gnr. Anderson, 2; R. Q-M-Sgt. Lettice, Gnr. Winsby and Gnr. de Carteret, one each. Second class, Gnr. Stevens, 4; Co. Q-M-Sgt. Hatcher, Bandmaster Rogers, Gnr. Hull and Zala, 3 each; Gnr. de Carteret, Heinekey, Scott, T. and Harness, 2 each; Gnr. Neill and Culross, 1 each. Third class, Gnr. Zala, Kerry, Maymirth and de Carteret, 2 each; Gnr. Denison, Morris, Ashdown, Green, Harness, Culross and Stevens, 1 each.

The scores in yesterday's shoot were as follows: First class—$7, Corp. Birch, 100; $5, Sgt. Carr, 95; $5, Gnr. Anderson, 95; $5, Staff-Sgt. Richardson, 93; $4, Gnr. de Carteret, 93; $4, Staff-Sgt. Richardson, 93; $4, Sgt. Smith, 93; $4, Sgt. A. Richardson, 92; $3.50, R. S. M. Macdougall, 92; $3.50, Sgt. Parker, 89; $3.50, Co. S-M. VICTORIA IS SNOWED UNDER

VANCOUVER ROWING CLUB WINS 27 TO 0

Disappointing Display by Victoria Rugby Members at Oak Bay

Victoria Rugby club was snowed under at Oak Bay park yesterday morning by the representative Rugby team of the Vancouver Rowing Club, the score ending in the tremendous total of 27 for the Rowing Club men and not even a single try for the Victoria club players.

The score is a true indication of the merits of the teams. Victoria only got twice into the opposition twenty-five yards, and when there failed to make any use of the advantage.

The visiting aggregation turned out a strong team at eleven o'clock, the time scheduled for the match to start, but when the referee wanted the teams on the field, to the surprise of the three hundred spectators, Victoria could not muster its necessary fifteen men. Throughout the game the Victoria club played only fourteen and this number included a couple of men who are not representative second division men.

The home players had a three, two, two, scrum and could make no headway against the heavier, three, two, three scrum of the Rowing club. In heeling the Victoria club players were beaten repeatedly and their three-quarter line was without combination or organization.

On the other hand the Rowing club put out the strongest pack and the speediest three-quarters and halves that have been on a Victoria playing ground from the Terminal city for three years. Almost every time that combination got forking it ran round the Capitals, in fact, four touches that would have resulted in angle kicks were cleverly brought to the centre and touched down behind the posts, making the kick for goal comparatively easy, so easy, in fact, that every try was converted into a goal.

Vancouver was better represented in the ranks of the spectators than was Victoria, in fact, the home patronage to the game was decidedly discouraging. The Argos club and the supporters of both it and the Rowing club were over in force, and cheered lustily as the Rowing club advanced point by point ahead.

The failure of the Victoria club to score was due to superiority on the part of the Rowing club defence, and the lack of condition of the members of the home team. They were all-round decidedly slow, showed a lamentable lack of speed and had no three-quarter and half-back combination to speak of.

Where Victoria stood out was in tackling, and this they did well, bringing to earth many plays that looked like additions to the big score that kept rolling up to the disappointment of the home spectators.

The game started nearly half an hour late owing to the fact that Victoria was unable to put a full team in the field. A request to the members of the J. B. A. club for help proved futile, because the Bays had a big game on in the afternoon themselves, and wanted every man fit and in condition to represent their side. Newcombe tried to enroll others to complete the team and filled one place with Bendroft. Johnston of the Bays played full-back.

Newcombe, Cooper, Henderson, and two of the Gillespie family formed the backbone of the Victoria club team, but their individual efforts failed repeatedly, owing to a lack of support. Had these players been well supported the Victoria club would then have had a chance to hold the big score in check, but under the circumstances it was seen from the very beginning the team had no chance of winning from the improved Vancouver fifteen. The Terminals have weight, remarkable speed and a fine combination forward. They also have a fairly sure goal kick and a weighty and able scrum.

The first score came ten minutes after play started. Vancouver's three-quarter line, after working up to business, got away, and a quick interchange of passes resulted in a try was made directly in front. The try was converted, Victoria had during the first ten minutes taken the ball once into the Vancouver twenty-five, but it was a stone wall which repulsed the attack. Twenty-three minutes after the start another try was scored through three-quarter combination, and was placed directly between the posts and then converted. Before half time the trick was done again and the change over showed the Rowing club 15 points to Victoria's no score.

The second half was slower, Vancouver did not have to hustle and was content to take what was coming. The first in the second half was three points from a free kick in front of goal, the ball being beautifully kicked between the posts. A try was then scored by Sawyers and before time was called the final try and concert were registered.

During the latter part of the game Roberts of the Vancouver team, was out of business, owing to a twisted ankle, and the teams played the greater part of the second half fourteen men a side.

LACROSSE PLAYERS TO GATHER AT A.O.U.W. HALL

"One Grand Show" is the Way Secretary Sweeney Talks About It

An announcement from the Victoria

Lacrosse Club is to the effect that the club smoker and round-up which the local stick-wielding organization is promoting, will be held at the A. O. U. W. hall on Monday next instead of at the Eagles hall, as previously announced. It was found that there would not be sufficient room at the lodge hall to allow tumbling and boxing, so the club management decided to change to the larger Yates Street emporium.

In addition to the smokes, refreshments, boxing, tumbling and singing that was announced as part of the entertainment for the evening Secretary John P. Sweeney has been successful in securing the Hunt Musical Comedy Company from the Lyceum theatre to contribute to the big show. Mr. Hunt will have all his company and chorus beauties up at the hall immediately after the show at the theatre, and they will render many musical treats that will tickle the fancies of all the supporters of the local club. It will be one grand show from beginning to end, says John P. Sweeney.

Tickets can now be had from Secretary Sweeney, and those intending to take in the show should get in on the ticket sale now, as only a limited number are to be sold to prevent a mob scene on the night of the show.

JAMES BAY LOST BY TWO POINTS TO ARGOS

University Boys Won Rugby Game From West End Vancouver Team, 3 to Nil

What the Rugby followers missed through the poor display of the Victoria Rugby club yesterday morning was more than made up by the snappy struggle put up in the afternoon at the Oak Bay field between the local James Bay fifteen and the Argos of Vancouver. The game resulted in a win for the Vancouver fifteen by 5 points to 3.

After a very spirited fight, the North Ward soccer eleven came through winners in Saturday's game with the Victoria West team, by the score of one goal to nil.

By winning this match the Northerners jumped into the premier position and are now leading the league by one point over their strong rivals, Victoria West.

The game was one of the best that has been played this season, and although the Wards won, it was acknowledged that the Wests had the best of the game. The winner's only tally came in the first half and was in the nature of a fluke. In a rush made by the forwards, which was partly broken up by the Wests' backs, Muir, unable to pass to any of his team-mates, shot for the goal. It was from a considerable distance, and Beane, thinking that the ball was going wide of the posts, made no attempt to stop it. The ball, however, curved while in the air and before the Wests' custodian had time to realize it the pig-skin had lodged tightly in the corner of the net.

During the remainder of the game Beane was called upon but twice to clear, while on the other hand Dougan, of the Wards, was given a lively time in preventing the ball from entering the net. The Wests' forward line bore down on an attempt to equalize and also to win. Although they were successful in beating the backs at various times they were totally unable to beat Dougan. They sent in many stinging shots and rushed the goalkeeper, but he managed to clear every time.

The Wests' left wing of the forward line was to the bad. Wright, the speedy little outside left, who generally can be relied on to put up a first class game, played poor ball. Three corners which he kicked never reached the goal-mouth and in his centring he was wild. In the second half the ball very seldom went into the Wests' territory, and whenever it did it was cleared by Bob White or Prevost. The halfbacks fed the forwards in remarkable style, but passes were missed at critical moments which resulted in their downfall. The only dangerous rush made by the Wards came when time was drawing to a close. McCarter secured the ball and as the Wests' backs were well down the field he had practically an open field. White attempted to catch him but the lead was too much. With no one near him McCarter shot on Beane's goal but the Wests' goalkeeper made a great save and the score mounted no higher.

The teams lined up as follows:
North Ward—Goal, Dougan; backs, Houden and McDonald; halfbacks, Taylor, Brynjolfsson and Brown; forwards, McCarter, Muir, A. Dakers, McGuire and J. Dakers.

Victoria West—Goal, Beane; backs, Bob White and Prevost; halfbacks, Thackeray, Petticrew and Bailey; for-

BATTILING NELSON NOT BIG BATTLER

Given Luck Draw at Dreamland Last Night Against Unknown

San Francisco, Nov. 1.—Public opinion is pretty evenly divided as to whether Battling Nelson "came back" in his fight last night with Antoine La Grave. Sporting writers say he did not show the old time dash that once made him the terror of his division, but that he is still there when it comes to taking punishment. Referee Eddie Smith said that Nelson was lucky to get a draw.

The fight, which was witnessed by one of the largest crowds ever gathered in Dreamland rink, was decidedly lacking in class. It was a case of two bruisers of the tough type meeting at the same game. Neither man landed hard enough to hurt the other. La Grave was four pounds overweight and considerable dissension with the management of the show was felt when Referee Smith declared all bets off.

The first story to be published as a serial was "Robinson Crusoe," which, after its success as a book, was issued serially in Heathcote's Intelligencer.

SIXTEEN BALES OF SILK TAKEN

Valuable Shipment, Intended for Empress of Japan, Looted at Hong Kong

Sixteen bales of raw Chinese silk, valued at over $9,000, were hastily stolen at Hongkong shortly before the M. S. Empress of Japan, for which vessel they were intended, sailed from the Oriental terminus. The story of the theft, as told by officers of the white liner, which arrived here on Saturday evening, shows it to have been a particularly daring one. A few days before the Japan was scheduled to leave Hongkong the shipment was brought to that port from Canton in the steamer Charles Hardouin, the latter vessel lying alongside the wharf awaiting the morning of October 7, when the silk was to be taken aboard the mail steamship.

During the early hours of that day, before daylight had come, a big sampan, came noiselessly alongside the Charles Hardouin and the sixteen bales were quietly lowered into her. When the theft was discovered the sampan was far away and the thieves were not in evidence. As this is the second silk robbery in the last few months, twelve bales having been taken from the big H. L. liner Minnesota just before she left Hongkong on her last voyage west, the authorities at Hongkong have now taken steps to prevent a repetition, considering that such open robbery reflects discredit on the port.

Altogether the white liner brought 475 passengers, 29 being in the saloon and the remainder steerage. A shipment of 1,594 bales of raw silk, valued at $955,000, and silk goods worth $54,000, were included in her cargo which totalled 2,029 tons.

Among the passengers were Hon. Thomas J. O'Brien, U. S. ambassador to Japan, and Mrs. O'Brien, who are bound to their home city of Grand Rapids, Mich., on a furlough of two months. Mr. O'Brien asked for an expression regarding the possibilities of trouble between Japan and the United States, spoke reassuringly. He said that the attitude of Japan towards his country was, in all matters, cordial, and he did not anticipate that any question would arise that would not admit of comparatively easy solution.

A load of two tons can be readily carried by a full grown elephant.

There are a great many places and occasions when the possibility of getting extra heat immediately effects an economy by decreasing the discomfort of the worker. In the office, in the early morning or late at night, before or after the steamheat is on, it is of importance to have extra heat. In the buffeter's outside office, in the shipping room, in the checker's shack, on exposed lofts, in railroad stations, in studios, the

The Evening Chit-Chat

BY RUTH CAMERON

Which would you rather—What does that remind you of? Oh yes, I know, London bridge, which would you rather have, a gold house studded with diamonds, or a gold pony cart and a milk white pony with gold shoes and a diamond harness?

To return—which would you rather hold a twenty-dollar-a-week position by virtue of ability, or a forty-dollar-a-week position by virtue of good fortune?

Seems to me the logical answer to that is perfectly plain, and yet I know many men who virtually answer the other way by worrying about a change of management.

I should think that any self-respecting man would be ashamed to worry about a change of management in his office.

For such a worry can mean but one thing—that he feels that his position depends partly on favor and not wholly on his ability to do his work. Such a man probably thinks he is lucky in having a soft snap, but he isn't.

Just the contrary. I heard a big business man say, "There is no man I pity more than the man who is earning more than he is worth. He thinks he is lucky, but he really is just the opposite, for he is always in line for a big jolt, and once he's adrift with his false estimate of himself and his bloated standard of living, there is no telling when he'll get a chance to anchor again."

Does your position depend wholly upon your ability to do the work? If it does, no matter what you are getting, you have one big reason to be thankful. Admire, and emulate if you can, the man who is earning twice what you are, because he has the brains to do so, but don't envy the man who is getting good money because he has a soft snap. Pity him.

And above all things, don't worry about holding your position.

If you want to worry, worry about being capable of doing the work as perfectly as it could be done.

Remember that no change of management ever affects the thoroughly good worker.

Even if it should, it wouldn't matter, for the whole world has need of him. As a wise philosopher of work puts it:

"If a man can write a better book, preach a better sermon or make a better mousetrap than his neighbor, the world will make a beaten path to his door."

P. S.—You may have noticed that I omitted to name the "wise philosopher of work." I did that for a good reason. I don't know his name and if anyone can tell me from whom that quotation is taken I will be very grateful, for I have never been able to place it. It is often ascribed to Emerson, but the work is never cited, and the best Emerson scholar I know has been unable to find it in Emerson's writings. If anyone can give me some information on this subject he will greatly oblige.

NAVIGATION ON SKEENA CLOSES

Hazelton, Now Bound Down From Kitselas, is Last Sternwheeler

According to advices received by Manager Thompson, of the Hudson Bay Company, the season of navigation on the Skeena river is at an end; all the stern-wheelers, with the exception of the company's vessel Hazelton, being tied up in Prince Rupert.

A message dated yesterday at 8 a. m. stated that the water was three feet below zero and falling, or more than one foot below the height at which navigation is reckoned safe. The steamer Hazelton, Capt. Gardner, left Copper River on Sunday en route to Kitselas with forty tons of cargo and had a hard time making the distance, which is only ten miles. She arrived at the canyon yesterday shortly after noon, and a telegram from Capt. Gardner, received this morning, stated that she would leave for Prince Rupert as soon as she had discharged. Some of the freight is intended for Hazelton, a point 7 miles above the canyon, and will be sent on in wagons which met the Hazelton.

The company's other vessel, Port Simpson, is now being hauled out at Prince Rupert. A message from her master, Capt. Jackson, states that there are only 50 tons of freight in the Prince Rupert warehouses for Hazelton, which will not cause a shortage in the Bulkley valley town.

With the rapid construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific railroad it is anticipated that next year will see the last of steamer traffic on the Skeena and the Hudson Bay Company's steamers will be placed in service on the Stikine river the following year.

HENLEY'S CHIEF BURIED AT SEA

Case Was Not Yellow Fever, as U. S. Quarantine Officials Decided

All speculation regarding the movements and condition of the Canadian-Mexican liner Henley, Capt. Batten, which was reported calling at San Pedro with Chief Engineer W. T. Patterson suffering from a disease which the U. S. quarantine officials diagnosed as yellow fever, was set at rest on her arrival in port Saturday afternoon.

While on the voyage north, between Mazatlan and the California coast, Chief Engineer Patterson was stricken with fever of a malarial character. Capt. Batten rendered all the aid possible to the suffering man and decided to put into San Pedro to land him. At that port, however, the quarantine officials decided that it was a case of the dreaded yellow fever, which has been notably absent from this coast for years. They stated that their facilities would not allow of the emergency being met and advised Capt. Batten to sail immediately for San Francisco.

The Henley was not more than 200 miles up coast, however, when the chief died. The body was consigned to the deep and Capt. Batten then decided that he would proceed to Victoria. He took most praiseworthy precautions to prevent infection among the crew in view of the statements of the San Pedro officials, fumigating the deceased man's quarters and then painting them. On arrival at William Head on Saturday afternoon, Dr. Watt, the local quarantine officer, decided that the chief engineer had died of a mild fever, nothing to support the theory of yellow fever being discovered. He complimented Capt. Batten on his precautionary efforts and then superintended a further fumigation of the vessel.

A sad feature of Chief Engineer Patterson's death was the fact that his brother, who is chief engineer of the British steamship Redhill, was passing out to sea on that vessel as the Henley came to port, quite oblivious of the bereavement he had suffered.

The Henley brought 1,600 tons of general freight, mostly from Europe via the Tehuantepec route, and discharged 400 tons here, leaving for Vancouver yesterday afternoon. There were no passengers aboard the Canadian-Mexican liner.

Besides Great Britain, the countries which have old age pensions are Denmark, France, China, Germany, New Zealand and Australia.

TITAN DELAYED BY FIERCE GALE

Holt Liner Arrives From Liverpool With 8,500 Tons of Cargo

Bucking a fierce northeast gale for four days after leaving Yokohama the Holt liner Titan, which arrived Saturday from Liverpool via Oriental ports, lost nearly twenty-four hours on her trip across the Pacific.

The Titan brought 8,500 tons of cargo, including 550 bales of silk valued at $300,000. On returning to port this week she will discharge 1,000 tons of general freight at the outer wharf. For Vancouver, the big Blue Funnel steamship has 5,300 tons, for Tacoma 1,500 tons and for Seattle 700 tons. Her steerage passengers were nearly all Chinese, 210 landing here and the remainder going on to the Sound.

NEW G. T. P. SCHEDULE

Only one steamer will be operated by the G. T. P. during the present winter, according to a new schedule issued on Saturday and becoming effective to-day. The Prince George, which left Prince Rupert at 11:20 p. m. yesterday for this port and is due tomorrow night, will lay up on arrival and the Prince Rupert will continue on a weekly schedule, leaving here Sunday night, and returning on Saturday night.

The Prince Albert, as the company's steamer Bruno is officially named, will leave Prince Rupert for Stewart immediately upon arrival of the north-bound steamer. For several weeks the C. P. R. docks here, resuming service late in the year in place of the Princess Rupert, which will be withdrawn and thoroughly overhauled preparatory to making a trip to Honolulu with the Chamber of Commerce excursion from Seattle.

NEW C. P. R. SCHEDULE

Commencing yesterday the C. P. R. steamers on the Victoria-Vancouver-Seattle run were placed on their winter schedule. The Princess Victoria will leave daily for Vancouver, excepting Sunday, at 3:30 p. m. instead of at 2:10 p. m. Coming from Seattle she will arrive here later than at present reaching her berth at 2 p. m. The Princess Charlotte will arrive from Vancouver as formerly, leaving for Seattle at 4:30 p. m. instead of 5 p. m., except on Monday. The Seattle-Victoria run will be taken by the steamer Iroquois on Mondays.

Port Alberni

You can safely invest your money in Port Alberni. As we previously told you, Port Alberni property is the best buy on the whole Pacific Coast of America. Outside of the enormous trade to be developed with the Orient steamers, the steamers trading via the Panama canal (and here let me say the insurance rate on ocean going steamers is cheaper into Port Alberni than into Vancouver B.C., which cheapness of rates eliminates the so-called danger of passage up the Alberni canal, the only drawback that is ever put forward as against Port Alberni being the best ocean port of the whole Pacific Coast). Outside the fact that Port Alberni is the terminus of two transcontinental railway lines, we have enough timber, mineral and farming land alone to develop a city of fifty thousand population. To those who wish to invest, I may say that at some future date the C. P. R. and C. N. railroads will run to the northern end of Vancouver Island, but you will have mountains of time in which to clean up large sums by investment in Port Alberni, with which, when the proper time arrives, to buy at the northern end of this island. We will give you due notice of said time. We have a LIMITED number of GOOD BUYS in Port Alberni. ACREAGE, SUBDIVISION LOTS AND INSIDE LOTS.

FROM BISHOP CRIDGE

Letter From/Aged and Beloved Pastor to Convention.

At the meeting of the Canadian Northwest Association of Congregational churches, of British Columbia, held in the Church of Our Lord last week, the following message from the aged and beloved Bishop Cridge was received with emotion and deep appreciation:

Marfield, Oct. 25, 1919.

"Dearly beloved brethren: 'Accept my brotherly salutation at your meeting together as an expression of your common faith in our one and only Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God.'"

"Permit me to add my contribution to your general subject, 'The Church of God.' I will confine myself to one passage, our Lord's own words in Matt. 16 in which we find the church in its simplest form—'Where two or three are met together in My name there am I in the midst of them,' the Head with the members, however few they may be. These words suggest the following truth, first, that the truth and authority of a doctrine do not depend on the numbers of those who profess; secondly, that meeting in the Lord's name is a practical sign of such a meeting being an act of the communion of saints; thirdly, the words which follow from the same lips show the foremost principle for which we stand, the independence of the congregation in the management of its own affairs. 'Every matter in dispute,' it is enjoined, 'tell it to the church.'"

"I believe we have here from the mouth of our Lord Himself expressly, or by just scriptural implication, all that of necessity goes to constitute a Christian church of God's on earth."

"I pray God that our association may be one step towards that communion of saints in which all profess to believe but of which the outward manifestations are so rare in any practical sense. If it be possible for two of the denominations in different cities to meet together, why should it not be possible for all who keep the faith pure and undiluted to unite in such communion? Asking your prayers for me in my old age and praising God who by His grace through our faith in His word has begotten us again in the gospel of His Son."

"I am, your fellow servant in the same. (Signed) 'EDWARD CRIDGE.'"

PASSING SHOW

New Grand Theatre.

For Thanksgiving day the Grand theatre had the satisfaction of offering as the principal place of indoor amusement the longest bill that has been shown in Victoria's vaudeville homeing months. The show yesterday, played to S. R. O. houses three times, took over half an hour longer than the regular show sent here. It will be reproduced every performance this week till the last show Saturday night, just as it was shown yesterday.

Charley Wayne played a capable company in "10. a. m. the Morning After," using moving pictures in his act and considerable other stage trickery. The company he carries is good and his act is distinctive and novel, while the singing is excellent.

Little Bud Heim and his merry sister, offered a children's act that won everybody. Bud is the comic and the little girl the classic and their act is a winner.

Thomas Potter Dunn, in "Coming In From the Gorge on a Late Car," is inexpressibly funny, and his power of using two voices makes his act much more popular than it would be otherwise. Dunn likes amusing, and he tells many odd stories in a very odd way.

Johnson Davenport and Lodella offer an athletic scramble, full of falls, bumps and mystery. They have a wind-up on a special apparatus that for fast work beats everything.

Retore plays several selections on instruments of his own manufacture, getting music from all kinds of things. Thomas J. Price sings a song with illustrated pictures, one of an angel wearing a director's skirt. The moving pictures at the close of the show are most acceptable.

Crystal Theatre.

The big Thanksgiving bill is again presented to-night, and is of the usual high standard. "Young Lord Stanley" is the liveliest love story ever pictured. The hero is a nobleman whose innate democracy permits of his doing manual labor when funds are low. He falls in love with his employer's daughter, apparently far above him in station. When once the tide of fortune runs his way his suit takes an odd turn. The picture explains to perfection. "Rev. J. Wright from Missouri" is a fine western drama. The young pugilistic paragon's fight for temperance and fairness in this wild, woolly community reminds one strongly of Ralph Connor's "Black Rock." "A Touching Mystery" is a regular nightmare picture, which must be seen to be appreciated. "Brothers in Arms" gives one the most realistic motion picture of a battlefield ever presented. Infantry, cavalry and artillery all in action, the dead and dying on the field, the stretcherbearers and nurses, all go to make this the most complete depiction of a war scene. There is a romance in this, of course, but it does not get in the way of the real military spirit.

What Other People Think

A CORRECTION.

To the Editor.—In your issue of October 28 you made certain statements regarding my opinion of the future of Bella Coala which are not quite correct, or perhaps I should say that you credited me with statements I did not make. My candid opinion is that Bella Coala has a future equal, if not better than the Okanagan or the Hood river, but I did not say that the present owners of the land failed to cultivate it and refused to sell it. This is what I wish you to correct, as it is an injustice to those who own the land and doing all they can to promote the welfare of what they all consider one of the most promising parts of British Columbia.

HIGH PRESSURE SALT WATER SYSTEM.

To the Editor.—According to the morning paper's report of a meeting of the city council last night, the mayor very pertinently asked the chief of the fire department why the high pressure plant was not brought into play quicker at the fire. Thoughtful ratepayers want to know this too. The paper also states "the chief was emphatic in his statement to the fire wardens that the work done by the high pressure system more than paid for the cost of the plant, and amongst other things urged provision for immediate use, and stated that in all there had been twenty-nine streams in play, fourteen of which were salt water, but practically every inch of hose was needed, and he urged that more hose should be purchased," the foregoing demonstrating:

(a) Perfect justification for installation of high pressure plant to the satisfaction of the observing ratepayer as well as the chief.

(b) Negligence in not promptly using high pressure.

(c) That out of the 29 streams 15 were fresh water under reservoir head.

(d) Readiness of fire chief to recommend expenditure for more hose.

It is submitted that the best use was not made of the high pressure plant. That a fair test of 15 fresh water streams would prove that better results could be obtained in fighting a fire in high buildings like Spencer's and the Driford by a less number of streams, there being a golden mean between a superior pressure and rapid delivery with a few streams, and an inferior pressure with slow delivery from a great number of streams, from a fixed quantity (the capacity of mains) working as it does inversely, the greater the number of streams the less the pressure.

If the above conclusions are correct, what is wanted is not more hose, but prompt use of the high pressure plant, and a judicious use of the pressure to be had from the fresh water mains.

If the fire wardens or the chief doubt the last conclusion, they can easily prove it by applying 15 streams at once on the tall chimney now standing near the centre of the burned area, and have a practical demonstration of the advantage of a golden mean by shutting off one by one until the required height is reached, and if they

NOT ANXIOUS FOR ELECTION

ASQUITH GOVERNMENT HOPES TO DEFER CONTEST

Introduction of Federal Home Rule Scheme Supplies New Policy

London, Nov. 1.—Concurrently with the vigorous discussions in the press on the new "Home Rule" policy for the United Kingdom, political soothsayers are busily forecasting the probability of a discussion of parliament before the committee. Should the veto conference fail the resolutions passed by the House of Commons just before the death of King Edward must come before the House of Peers; and if rejected there, an instant appeal to the country will be precipitated.

There are reasons for thinking, however, that in consequence of the introduction of the policy of "Home Rule" all round, the political situation has been modified and the government party is now not so eager for a tilt at their lordships' house as a few months ago it professed to be.

The Liberal leaders, indeed, are by no means anxious for a general election in January. The budget taxation has proved for too unpopular, and it would require the loss of only a few seats thoroughly to impair the authority and prestige of the ministerial position. Again, there is the obvious desire of ministers to be secure in their offices till after the coronation, and to be in possession when the Imperial conference takes place.

These considerations of themselves may easily induce ministers to grasp eagerly at any project which may "side-track" for the moment the appeal to the people.

The introduction of the enlarged Home Rule scheme, therefore, is a blessing to the radical party, for it supplies a new and definite policy, and may afford an excuse for deferring the arbitration of the polls until late in the coming year.

Mr. Augustine Birrell's speech at the Eighty Club, which gave the first intimation of the change of policy in the Liberal ranks contained the following passage: "He believed that federation beginning here at home, as it was called, was ripening for rapid and speedy decision. Such a federation once established would be able to find room for our dominions overseas as and when they wished to come in. We should have then a truly Imperial parliament. Such an Imperial parliament, free from all local detail and business, would face the greatest task of our age, the securing of good government to as many of the inhabitants of the world as were combined within the sway of a great Empire."

MAY BLOCK SUMAS RIVER.

Chilliwack, Nov. 1.—T. H. White, chief engineer of the Canadian Northern railway for British Columbia; S. H. Sykes, assistant chief; and W. G. Swan, divisional engineer, were in the valley the other day examining the work on the grade and inspecting the site of the proposed bridge over the Sumas river with a view to determining the feasibility of blocking the river at that point in accordance with the plan of the Sumas Development Co. for the reclaiming of Sumas Lake. Should this action be taken it will necessitate the changing of the course of the Chilliwack river.

THE ADVANCE MAN

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch."

Written by a woman, and dramatized by a woman, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," which comes to the Victoria theatre to-night, utterly disproves the popular fallacy that women have no sense of humor. The play is thoroughly satisfying, funny in every sense of the word, and the clever lines of the book are heightened to a great degree by the little inimitable touches that only the most clever actors can give, and that must be seen to be appreciated. Never has a play been more obviously a character study with the plot woven about it than this "Mrs. Wiggs," but it is surprising how smoothly it leads from one phase to another, and how interesting even the most commonplace incidents become with Mrs. Alice Hogan Rice's halo of appreciable understanding shedding its light upon them.

The humor is of the best and highest, and it is drawn closely from the little incidents of everyday life that can amuse us so infinitely if we do not let ourselves "get soaked," as Mrs. Wiggs expresses it. The development of this commonplace side of things is missionary work, for it reminds everyone how much real amusement can come out of even the most unfortunate circumstances, and gives a code of living that if carried out would certainly make the world a much better place. Mrs. Wiggs, with her patently funny philosophy, is at once a source of laughter, and to the thoughtful, a mild but well-pointed sermon. There are scarcely words to describe Miss Hazy and her "matrimonial venture," Mr. Stubbs.

In each costume Miss Hazy is absolutely more ridiculous than in the preceding one, and her appearance is all that is needed to send the audience into uncontrollable laughter. She reveals new comic possibilities in spinsterhood and matrimony. Lovey Mary, as appealing as she is in the book, is made more so in the play. All the characters of "The Cabbage Patch," to the number of a thirty, appear in the play, and even the goat and Cuby, the "bit horse," travel with the production. The stage setting is a photographic reproduction of the world-famous Louisville Cabbage Patch, where Mrs. Wiggs, the original of Mrs. Wiggs, still lives.

Leza Lehmann.

At the first concert of the Victoria Musical Society, in the Victoria theatre on November 11, Madame Leza Lehmann, the distinguished English composer, will be assisted by her London quartette, Miss Blanche Tomlin, soprano; Palgrave-Turner, contralto; Hubert Eisdell, tenor, and Julien Henry, baritone.

Everywhere Madame Lehmann appeared last season her concerts were great successes. She is a most charming woman, and as an accompanist she is certainly surpassed by none on this continent. Indeed, it was her own personality and her skill at the piano that drew the relative quota of sincere music-lovers to her concerts last season. She plays the piano with considerable technical finish and fine tonal differentiation, and scored a flattering success with her compositions.

Majestic Theatre.

There is a very powerful study in human impulse presented this week in the biograph drama entitled "The Iconoclast." It deals with the vexed question of capital and labor, and shows how an efficient and trusted workman can have his nature embittered by unscrupulous leaders until he is ready to commit a crime. At this juncture the man witnesses the private life of his employer, who has a hopelessly crippled child, and then realizes that money is not everything.

The climax is presented with telling force, and the whole idea of the plot well conceived. "For Her Country's Sake" is an impressive story of the revolution. "Micro Cinematograph—Sleeping Sickness," presents the spread of the disease germs which causes the sleeping sickness in Africa, and suggests a whole range of valuable educational subjects clearly worth while which would form a series of great usefulness in the dissemination of information upon the action and spread of common diseases. "A Jar of Cranberry Sauce" is a very funny comedy, depicting the experiences of a farmer who takes his lunch to town with him. The excitement which results from opening the jar is most laughable. "Almost a Hero" is another excellent comedy with some ludicrous situations.

TELEPHONE COMPANY BANKRUPT.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—The Independent Telephone Company, operating in approximately 25 cities and towns in Northern and Central Illinois, was placed in the hands of a receiver today by Judge Kohlsaat in the United States Circuit court. Evans, paid out $40,000 of the company funds without authority.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 29.—President Fegol, of the Philadelphia National League club, when informed today that President Lynch had promulgated the release of the four Cincinnati players to the Philadelphia club, said: "We will be glad to accept these players if they want to give them to us as a gift. I have not agreed to an exchange nor have I acted on Manager Doolan's resignation."

The McLaughlin Buick Car Still Leads

MR. ERNEST G. MAYNARD, 215 Park Boulevard, Victoria, writes as follows:
Western Motor Supply Co., Victoria, B. C.

Gentlemen: I have driven my McLaughlin Buick Car continually since May 18th, 1909, covering OVER 10,000 MILES, and during this period my repairs and replacement account has only been $7.00, for one spark plug and one spring. My car runs as well now as when I purchased it. I have travelled over some of the roughest roads on this island, also been over the Summit several times, and still running on the same tires I got with the car. I feel safe in saying it is the BEST CAR ON THE MARKET FOR THE MONEY.

This is only one of the many unrefuted testimonials that have been received. Better come in and let us demonstrate one for you.

FRANCHISE FOR VICTORIA NINE

FORMAL ADMISSION TO NORTHWESTERN TO-DAY

Householder Signing Players
 In South for Next Season

Victoria was, at 2 o'clock this afternoon, admitted to the Northwestern baseball league; the resolution having been put and passed at a meeting of the Northwestern league held to-day at the Seattle hotel in the Sound city, with President Lindsay in the chair.
 Portland was also admitted and the other teams that will play the Northwest circuit next season are Vancouver, Spokane, Seattle and Tacoma.
 The franchise has been granted and the necessary deposit and guarantee fund of $50 required was posted and accepted. Speeches by the president, and by D. E. Dugdale, of Seattle club, followed, and the utmost harmony is expected to prevail in the extended Northwestern league next season.
 Victoria will get sixty professional baseball games at the Royal Athletic park next season, besides the number of games the team will play in the other five cities. The capital of the province has entered on the undertaking, and all the Northwestern managers say they want the Vancouver Island metropolis to be permanently associated with the league for all years to come.

In a talk with the sporting editor of the Times, at Seattle on Saturday, D. E. Dugdale, owner of the Seattle ball team franchise, looked forward to the 1911 baseball season. Dugdale said the Northwestern did not look further than Victoria for the fifth team for the whole of the Northwestern managers were in favor of the B. C. capital, if it could be induced to join.

"We like your spirit, and your business-like way of going about things," said Dugdale, "and what you want there for the success of your ball team, which is to be admitted Tuesday, is home encouragement. This is necessary. There is no doubt the people over there will have to be educated to baseball, and we do not want the game to be there temporarily only; we want perpetual baseball in Victoria. I hope it will be a grand success (when Dug-dale says grand success it is incapitulous) for we want Victoria to be with us. You have one of the best northwest baseball players in the capital; be in the pennant race, for it keeps up the spirit of sport and rivalry, and it would be a shame (more capitals) to have a city the size of Victoria out of the baseball pennant race of the northwest."

"We all hope you will enter the race like the good sports you are. If fortune does not smile do not get discouraged. Get out and root just the same. If you would have success for your club get out and root. Ball teams don't care what happens much from the crowd in the outside cities, but at their home town they want all the support the public can give."

Eddie Householder has secured his discharge from Bob Brown, owner of the Vancouver franchise, and is signed on for the Victoria nine for next year as team manager. Householder has gone to California and is now searching for men who can be signed up for the Victoria 1911 team.

There has been a report here that all the available talent for next year's Northwestern would have been snapped up by the other teams, and that Victoria would have to take the leftovers and consequently have a poor representation. This, however, is erroneous for the Seattle club, according to Dugdale, is now signing up players from Texas, and other far-away states. Dugdale says Victoria will have as good chances to secure a representative Northwestern nine next year as any team in the Northwestern. Eddie Householder is a ball player of fifteen years' experience. He is sober, industrious and a capable man. He stands well in all the clubs of the Northwestern and knows all there is to be known about baseball.

Householder will sign up eighteen men at a salary list of about $5,000 per month. Fifteen of these men will be dependables on, and the other three will be experiments, who may be dropped at any time. The club will carry a salary list of close on $5,000 per month, and on this should be able to sign up a team that can give the city a run for the money. It is putting up towards this venture.

Householder will do the bulk of the signing up, and in the opinion of Dugdale the former Vancouver right fielder will make one of the best managers in the Northwestern.

The income of the ballteam company will be derived from the gate receipts at the games throughout the Northwestern league schedule. At home Victoria will draw fifty per cent of the entrance gate receipts, and the full total of the grand stand gate receipts. When playing away the Victoria club will get fifty per cent of the entrance gate receipts.

In Seattle on Saturday Dugdale offered a little advice to the Royal Park Athletic Association, on whose ground the Victoria schedule games will probably be played. Dugdale puts the case like this. The Seattle ground owned by him has an assessment value of $100, 000 and he rents it out to the ball league for twenty per cent of the gate.
 The Royal Athletic Park, he says, ought to do the reasonable thing to the Victoria ball club syndicate, and for the first season let the club have the grounds at ten per cent of the gate, for with 60 games in hand, the association would draw more than if the team was not in existence, as during last year.

"Because a team in the Northwestern is not a winning team," said Dugdale,
 "it does not follow the team is a losing proposition financially. Take Seattle, for instance, this year we were way down below the cellar floor, yet the club lost only $1,000, and this on top of the cost of the grounds, which amount to $2,000 per year, so all round the Seattle club had a successful season. Our expenses here are very heavy. The year before we lost a few hundred only, but the year before we were away up, and now whether we lost or won Seattle would not do without its ball team."

Victoria will get much more money travelling than will the five other clubs in the league, when they come here.
 When Aberdeen was in the league the Seattle team paid from its gate receipts as much as $5 against every $1 received when playing at Aberdeen, and with this in view and remembering that despite the heavy expenses of the Seattle team, the loss there has been only nominal this year; and taking into consideration the growing population of Victoria Dugdale cannot see any way out of it, but that Victoria may be a financial success. He, however, admits that Victoria must try and get a winning team for the sporting spirit is necessary, and that win or lose the population must get into the habit of being proud of its ball team; keep up the enthusiasm, and help the boys along all the time. Dugdale figures that when away the Victoria nine will get from him $5 for every one that he gets from the gate here.

With the team admitted and Householder in the south signing up the bulk of the players, the ball park management will be given notice that if the association wants the games the Royal Park will have to be put in shape for the playing of league ball.
